OP202

A close-up photograph of a stack of white paper. The paper is slightly off-white and has a subtle texture. The edges of the pages are visible, creating a layered effect. In the bottom left corner, there is a bright yellow rectangular label with the text 'OP203' in white, bold, sans-serif font. The background to the right of the paper stack is a blurred, repeating pattern of light-colored, possibly metallic or plastic, ridges.

The background features a series of overlapping, three-dimensional rectangular planes. The planes are colored in various shades of green, ranging from a vibrant lime green to a muted sage green. The planes are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and perspective, with some planes appearing to recede into the distance while others are in the foreground. The lighting is soft, highlighting the edges and surfaces of the planes, giving them a slightly textured appearance.
